Camper Guidelines (Camper and parent/guardian, please read carefully and sign below)

- Campers must be registered and have a completed health record on file with Missouri Ministries.
- Campers will obey all printed and stated camp guidelines and policies and will attend all scheduled activities.
- Campers are to remain in cabins after lights out time each evening, unless otherwise given permission (i.e. - restroom or nurse visit).
- All personal medication, prescription or otherwise, will remain with and be distributed by the camp nurse.
- Campers will not need additional money at camp. Camp fees include all activities, lodging, meals, snacks, and a T-shirt or hat.
- Inappropriate language and physical or verbal abuse will not be permitted.
- Campers will respect Camp Sharon property, personal property of others, and the privacy of others.
- Campers will dress modestly at all times, including swimwear (i.e. - no 2-piece swimsuits, spaghetti strap tops, or other inappropriate attire).
- Campers will not wear clothing or other attire with inappropriate logos or advertisements.
- Campers will not bring snacks, soda, etc. to camp. Camp Sharon provides three healthy meals and a variety of snacks throughout the week.
- Campers will not have access to Camp Sharon phones. In case of emergency, a staff member will contact the parent/guardian.
- Campers' personal electronic devices (media players, phones, tablets, laptops, etc.) are not allowed at Camp Sharon in order to protect all persons from access to inappropriate media (music, videos, games, web-based media accessible via phones, etc.). Standard cameras are allowed.
- Campers who possess and/or use alcohol, narcotics, tobacco products, fireworks or firearms will be sent home and may face legal consequences.
- Parents/guardians of minors will be held accountable for any damage to camp property.
- Missouri Ministries may use photos of campers for publicity purposes unless the parent/guardian checks "NO" and initials here: NO _____

We, the undersigned, have read and agree to the Camper Guidelines listed above.
